

Miaofen Yen, PhD, RN, FAAN

Professor Miaofen Yen, Department of Nursing, National Cheng Kung University, Taiwan, is the Chair of the Governance Board of the Asian Pacific Alliance of Nursing Education (APANE). She served as the Chair of the 2016 Asian Congress in Nursing Education (ACiNE) held in Taiwan. Her recently funded research studies focus on developing digital competencies for nursing students and generating strategies for promoting healthy lifestyles among patients with chronic illnesses. She is a fellow of the American Academy of Nursing (FAAN). She was recognized for her outstanding contribution to advanced nursing education. She received the inaugural Kim Mo Im Policy Innovation and Impact Award at the International Council of Nurses Congress in 2017 and an Excellent Contribution in Nursing Profession Award from Taiwan Nurses Association in 2018. Dr. Yen has lectured extensively worldwide.