

Tran Thuy Khanh Linh, PhD

Tran Thuy Khanh Linh, RN, PhD is head of School of Nursing and Vice Dean at Faculty of Nursing and Medical Technology, University of Medicine and Pharmacy at Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam. She is a Vice Chairman, Vietnamese Nurses Teacher Branch; Member of Nursing Committee, Department of Health. Dr Lihn has developed international relations for her School. These have included Continuing Education courses with: Children's Heartlink (Critical Care); WOCN (Wound Ostomy and Continence Nurses); Friendship Bridge - USA to implement a Master of Nursing Program; Student exchanges to Denmark, Belgium and Japan. Her experiences are related to Competency-based Education, Nursing research, Management and leadership, and Evidence-based practice. She has published research articles, textbooks, and proceedings in national and international fields.